

PRSA Capital Region, NY believes in investing in the profession and the professional. We award a scholarship to help members earn their Accreditation in Public Relations (APR) certification from the Universal Accreditation Board (UAB).

The APR certification is a mark of distinction for public relations professionals who demonstrate their commitment to the profession and to its ethical practice, and who are selected based on broad knowledge, strategic perspective, and sound professional judgment. (For more information on APR certification, please visit www.praccreditation.org.)

This scholarship will fully cover the cost of the APR computer-based examination, which is the only fixed cost for APR candidates¹.

Applications may be submitted on a rolling basis, with consideration for approval by the board regular business meetings occurring during the first week of every month.

Requirements for applicants:

- Must be a PRSA Capital Region NY Chapter member in good standing at the time of submission;
- Must have five (5) or more years of professional experience in public relations, communications, marketing or related fields;
- Must be willing to take the APR computer-based exam within one year of application acceptance from the Universal Accreditation Board²;
- If and when the candidate earns APR certification, he/she must be willing to provide guidance and/or support to other PRSA members seeking accreditation (as available and as required by the UAB for continuing APR certification).
